grounds. We were in an Anchorage campground. I went to a restroom shower building to take a shower. This building was new. It was made of concrete with a steel door. I went in and the door shut after me. My sister who was following after me tried to open the door but it would not open. I was the only one in there. My sister got the manager but he couldn't open it with his key. My dad and another man tried to knock the door loose, but nothing worked. So the manager called a locksmith and carpenter. He could not get the door open. So they got a ladder and climbed up to a small window and cut the window screen off the window. He then took the window out. I climbed up on a sink and he reached down and lifted me out.

The manager thought I would get upset and cry, but I knew they would get me out.

He became very friendly with us and my brother could hold him in one hand and feed him with the other. I named him Archie the II.

Some of the larger prizes require more sales or extra money as explained in the Big Prize Book.
